

Ongoing state and federal budget debates will be crucial for the survival of IHSS

UDW Homecare Providers Union, along with the IHSS Coalition and its member organizations, believe our advocacy efforts with legislators and the media will be much stronger if we can “put a human face” on the IHSS program. That is why feedback from consumers and providers is critically important.

Please take a few moments to complete the form below. You may cut and paste if necessary, or submit additional pages. Permission signatures are required. We appreciate your participation.
